TV Turnoff Week

Makes Time for Fun!

We hope you are enjoying your TV-free week! Have you had a chance to do some things you don't normally have time to do? Are you spending more time together as a family doing more creative and active activities? Please plan to do something special with your family on Earth Day, April 22.

Don't forget our Family Fun Night at Stonewall this Friday, April 23, 6:00-8:00 p.m.! We will play games outside, draw with sidewalk chalk, and eat ice cream. What a great way to end the school week! Bring your whole family!

Please don't forget about our TV Turnoff Week contest! Tell us a story from your TV-free week and enter to win a $10 gift card donated by Joseph-Beth or the Morris book shop! We will be awarding five $10 gift cards, three from Joseph-Beth and two from the Morris book shop. We greatly appreciate these donations from our two terrific local bookstores! Entries are due by Thursday, April 29 to the PTA box in the front office. Older children are expected to write their stories. Younger children can draw pictures. Kids, remember to put your name and your teacher's name on your entry! We are looking forward to hearing your stories. Winners will be announced on Monday, May 3. Please contact Kim at kpbrowning@windstream.net with any questions. I hope you are having a great week!

Teacher and Staff

Appreciation Week

May 2-8, 2010

The Stonewall PTA Hospitality Committee, led by Kay Marshall, has some special treats planned for our dedicated teachers and staff during Teacher and Staff Appreciation Week. If you would like to contribute a treat or a gift, please contact Kay at kay3387@aol.com. You may also contact your home room parent to find what each classroom has planned.

Kids can contribute too! How about asking your student to make a nice card or draw a picture to show each teacher how much they are loved and appreciated. Make an extra special effort to do your best work and follow classroom rules. Be cheerful with a happy smile on your face. Just take the time to say thanks for being a great teacher!
